

PORTER & PRINCE

LUXURIES AND LINENS

TRADE CONCIERGE PROGRAM

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Discount cannot be combined with any other offer or promotion, and does not apply to the purchase of apparel, accessories, beauty, or gift cards, as well as monogramming, surcharges/shipping/processing fees or taxes. Program is available to architects, interior decorators, home design professionals and real estate developers only. Membership is not transferable, and is offered to individuals only. If your firm has multiple designers, each must individually apply for membership.

Misuse of membership may result in immediate termination from the program. Misuse includes, without limitation: use of trade discount for personal purchases; resale through any retail or auction site; reimbursement of trade discount upon merchandise return; sharing trade discount with others; and submitting false, expired or misleading information on application.

To qualify, please fully complete our trade program membership application. Before approval, you will be required to submit proof of the following:

- Resale or Sales Tax Certificate number
- Copy of business card with your design profession
- Interior Design Certification/ Major Design Organization identification-or-valid membership to a major residential or commercial development business organization (e.g., NAHB, NAA, etc.)

At this time, files cannot be uploaded with the application. From the email address used in your online application, please send scanned copies of the three required documents to info@porterandprince.com with the name of the trade applicant listed as such in the subject line of the email.
